

NATIONAL SYMPOSIUM
ON JAPANESE LANGUAGE
EDUCATION

Save the Date for 2018 NSJLE

Don't miss the 4th National Symposium on Japanese Language Education

A joint project of The Japan Foundation Sydney and The Melbourne Centre for Japanese Language

- Theme:
Bigger Broader Better!
- Date:
November 2 and 3, 2018
- Venue:
Sydney (details TBA)
- Summary:
The diversity of Japanese language education in the world is spreading widely. In the context of the educational setting in Australia, what kind of growth opportunities can we provide learners to excel in the 21st century through Japanese language education? Do learners need to broaden their knowledge aiming for a more thorough understanding of Japanese language and culture in order to maximise world wide opportunities related to Japan and Japanese language education.

Call for papers will be issued in January with more details to come very soon.

All teachers are encouraged to submit an application to present at the symposium

Presentations on the following topics are encouraged:

- Advocacy
- Innovative programs – models for success
- Australian Curriculum: Languages – Japanese
- The Current State of Japanese Language Education
- ICT
- Bilingual/Immersion Program
- Action Research

Presentations in either Japanese or English are welcome

All educators from every level of education, primary, secondary and tertiary and all stakeholders involved or interested in Japanese Language Education are welcome.
