

「日本人の友達がおみやげを買うとき、何を買ったほうがいいと思いますか」

Hyogo Boys: どうも、Hyogo Boys です。よろしくおねがいします。

Ryuji: Now we are studying Japanese, right?

Masato: Yes, Japanese is pretty hard, but it's interesting.

Ryuji: Yes, it is. We've got exchange students from our sister school in Japan every year.

Masato: Yes, we want them to enjoy their stay.

So, I think we should advise them to buy some nice souvenirs in Perth.

Ryuji: That's a very good idea! So, I will ask you about that in Japanese.

And, you can answer me.

Masato: OK. Come on!

Ryuji: 日本人の友達がおみやげを買うとき、何を買ったほうがいいと思いますか。

Masato: フィッシュ&チップスを買ったほうがいいと思います。

Ryuji: なんでやねん! You cannot take Fish-and-Chips back to Japan!

It will be spoilt before you get back home!

Masato: Oh, that's true. Please ask me again.

Ryuji: 日本人の友達がおみやげを買うとき、何を買ったほうがいいと思いますか。

Masato: コアラを買ったほうがいいと思います。

Ryuji: なんでやねん!

You cannot buy a koala!

Even if you could buy one, you couldn't take it back to Japan!

Never! It's illegal.

Masato: Never? Illegal?

But I have seen koalas in Hyogo, Japan. Who brought those? It's illegal.

Ryuji: Don't say that. They are gifts from Western Australia.

Hyogo prefecture and Western Australia are sister states.

Masato: Western Australia and Hyogo prefecture are best friends in the world.

Ryuji: Yes, they are.

Masato: I see.

Ryuji: You should also say something like an Australian key ring or a stuffed toy.
They are so easy for us to take back to Japan, and most importantly, not expensive.

Masato: Not expensive and easy to bring back to Japan. I see. Please ask me again.

Ryuji: 日本人の友達がおみやげを買うとき、何を買ったほうがいいと思いますか。

Masato: ピナクルズを買ったほうがいいと思います。

Ryuji: もうええわ！

Hyogo Boys: どうも、ありがとうございました。
